Sixth Sunday of Easter

But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I have said to you. ~ John 14:26

In this week's Gospel, Jesus promises to send the Holy Spirit, who will remain with the disciples and with us. Though Jesus is no longer physically here, His presence continues through the Spirit, guiding, comforting, and strengthening us. Embracing the Holy Spirit, we find peace and strength to continue Christ's mission in our own lives.

Jesus' promise means that we are never alone. The Holy Spirit is always there to support us and help us understand God's will, even in our darkest moments. We are called to open our hearts to the Holy Spirit and allow God's love to transform us and work through us in our daily lives.

Reflection questions:

- How can I open my heart more to the guidance of the Holy Spirit?
- What steps can I take to feel more connected to God's presence?
- How can I share the love of the Holy Spirit with others?

thank you As we conclude the Sacramental Preparation Year for 2024-2025, we congratulate those who celebrated their First Holy Communion & Confirmation during the Easter season. Prayer Corner

As we conclude our focus on Praise Prayer, consider how to make it a daily part of life:

- Begin your day by naming one attribute of God (His mercy, faithfulness, power) and praising Him for it.
- Offer praise at Mass with full heart and voice—especially during hymns and acclamations.
- Reflect on your actions: Do they glorify God? If not, let the Holy Spirit transform your life into a living act of praise.

Praise renews us. It reminds us that God is God—and we are His beloved. As children of the Father, saved by the Son, and filled with the Holy Spirit, our whole lives can become a song of praise.

Pick up a Praise Prayer Card at the church entrances or access it online: <https://bit.ly/4jpcOMQ>
