FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus is our good shepherd and we are His sheep (John 10:11). He knows each one of us including our innermost being, our secrets, and our problems. He is our Lord and King. He will take care of us. In Him alone shall we give our trust.

Yet many times we become the black sheep, the unruly sheep, or hard-headed sheep. We do not listen to our good shepherd. He tells us what to do but we refuse or reject His words. We may have a bible at home but it is there gathering dust. We have a lot of time for our worldly habits but too little time for listening to our good shepherd. Or we may want to listen but the volume of the sound of this world is too loud that we become distracted. It is therefore necessary that from time to time, we go into solitude so that we may focus on Him and His message for us.

Jesus takes care of His sheep and calls us to take care of one another, especially the most vulnerable. Let us share His love with them.

RELIGIOUS ED VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED!

MOTHER'S DAY

Good and Gentle God, we pray in gratitude for our mothers and all women who have joined with you in the wonder of bringing forth new life. You who became human through a woman, grant to all mothers the courage they need to face the uncertain future that life with children always brings. Give them the strength to love and to be loved in return, not perfectly, but humanly. Give them the faithful support of husband, family and friends as they care for the physical and spiritual growth of their children. Give them joy and delight in their children to sustain them through the trials of motherhood. Most of all, give them the wisdom to turn to you for help when they need it most.
