PALM SUNDAY

The readings this week tell of the death of Jesus Christ, who showed us the true meaning of love and the nature of God. We all know that death is coming sooner or later. We are dust and to dust we shall return.

But the death of Jesus offers us hope. For death cannot destroy what already belongs to God. By completely entrusting ourselves to our loving Father, as he did, we can cheat death.

This week's reflections:

- What are some things of this world which hold my loyalty?
- Is there an area in my life which I need to more fully entrust to God?
- Do I cling to fear and to the material world?

Along the daily way of the cross, we meet the faces of so many brothers and sisters in difficulty: let us not pass by, let us allow our hearts to be moved with compassion, and let us draw near.

“This pandemic has had a big impact on the world, revealing new needs in our communities, and it is through ShareLife's support that we have been able to provide prepared meals and pantry goods every week to our members through our food delivery program.

Your invaluable support enables us to continue offering services. ~ LA Centre for Active Living

Join us on Tuesday, April 12, 7:30pm for an auditory Holy Week treat. MOSAIC with the St. Michael's Choir School Alumni choir conducted by Gordon Mansell will sing TENEBRAE here at OLS. No registration required. Free will offerings are appreciated.

Join Alicia as we prepare ourselves for Easter, the most important time in the church year. Watch as she teaches us how we can create our own ice cream palm Sundays. Visit our Children's Liturgy Playlist on our YouTube Channel to join in.

Family Activity:

What can you do this Holy Week to help make it special for you and your family? How will you take time out as a family to celebrate the upcoming Triduum?

When you gather for dinner, light a candle and talk about the events in the last week of Jesus' life. Divide the reading of the passion into segments and read one part each evening this week.

Music Ministry

This week our Music Director selected Msgr. Ronan's Tenebrae service for us. This was a live presentation that MOSAIC did at the Church of All Nations at Gethsemane. Visit our Music Ministry Playlist on our YouTube Channel to listen and learn more.
